Ye Olde Cheshire Cheese Inn is a delightful 17th-century coaching inn located in the heart of the stunning Peak District National Park. With its foundations dating back to 1660, this historic establishment has a rich legacy, having gained its licence in 1748 and becoming the Ye Olde Cheshire Cheese Inn in 1876. What sets us apart from the typical chain pubs is our unique selection of food and drink, curated to create an inviting and cosy atmosphere, free from the distractions of games machines or sports broadcasts. Our team, led by Amanda, is dedicated to providing a warm and friendly service that prioritizes your comfort. Here, you'll find 10 comfortable en-suite rooms equipped with modern amenities like flatscreen TVs, hairdryers, and tea/coffee making facilities. We offer a variety of room types including singles, twins, doubles, and King Superior Rooms, ensuring that there's something to suit every guest. A full English breakfast, featuring a range of options catering to various dietary needs, is included with your stay. Our restaurant serves quality homemade food every day from 12 noon, freshly cooked by our talented chefs. We proudly cater for gluten-free, vegan, and vegetarian diets, all while offering a fantastic selection of local beers and ales at our bar. Whether you're here for a weekend getaway, to explore the beautiful surroundings, or simply to enjoy a hearty meal, Ye Olde Cheshire Cheese Inn provides a welcoming haven with a historic charm. Book directly with us for the best possible rates and consider enhancing your stay with thoughtful extras like a bottle of wine or chocolates on arrival. With a location that offers endless possibilities for exploration, including iconic landmarks such as Mam Tor and Chatsworth House, we invite you to experience the warmth and hospitality of Ye Olde Cheshire Cheese Inn.
