China Palace presents a mixed bag of culinary experiences, characterized by polarized opinions. Many patrons express disappointment, citing issues such as incorrect orders, greasy food quality, and late deliveries. Complaints about watery dishes and unappetizing smells are prevalent. Conversely, some diners celebrate the restaurant's offerings, praising standout items like salt and pepper chicken and fresh, generous portions at competitive prices. While service may falter occasionally, loyal customers appreciate the value and flavor, indicating that China Palace remains a noteworthy choice for takeaway. Ultimately, it seems prudent to approach with tempered expectations based on varied feedback.
