While many revel in its welcoming atmosphere and attentive service, critiques often center on the limited lunch options and inconsistent food quality. Some diners reported disappointingly small portion sizes or lukewarm dishes, particularly with pricier meals. However, numerous guests praised the exquisite flavors and unique menu items that set it apart from typical pub fare. Recommendations flow for standout dishes like the Crispy Beef Salad and Appleby Cheese Croquette. Overall, despite some drawbacks, the Combermere remains a beloved spot worth visiting for its vibrant ambiance and commitment to quality.
