The Duke's Head pub offers a mixed dining experience, where patrons have enjoyed friendly service and a welcoming atmosphere. While many have praised the hearty, home-cooked meals, particularly the varied menu and gluten-free options, others have expressed disappointment over inconsistent food quality and long wait times. Positive notes include commendable staff attentiveness and a genuine local vibe, making it a popular spot for gatherings. However, some diners found recent changes under new ownership and renovations have impacted the cozy ambiance they once cherished. Overall, The Duke's Head remains a favored local haunt, albeit with room for improvement.
