Experience Highland Hospitality in the Heart of Royal Deeside at Darroch Learg Hotel. Nestled in the scenic village of Ballater, our charming hotel features ten lovely bedrooms, delicious food, comfortable sitting rooms, and breathtaking views of the surrounding hills. Guests have been returning to this haven for over 60 years, as the Franks family continues to provide a warm welcome in the majestic Cairngorms National Park. With stunning vistas across the valley of the River Dee and the hills around Glen Muick, Darroch Learg is the perfect Highland retreat. As The Telegraph beautifully puts it, enjoy “good food and relaxed company in tranquil surroundings, with excellent views to the hills.” Since its establishment in 1888 and subsequent opening as a hotel in the 1950s,

Darroch Learg has been lovingly maintained by the Franks family since 1961. Guests rave about their experiences here, with one visitor noting it as “one of the best hotels” they’ve visited, complimenting the immaculately kept surroundings and the incredibly welcoming owners. We regularly host a dynamic selection of events in Royal Deeside, including workshops, talks, guided walks, and ceilidhs—each designed to enhance your stay with us. Looking ahead to 2025, we’re excited to introduce new adventures such as mountain weather forecasting, wild swimming, mountain biking, and stargazing. Come and discover the charm and hospitality of Darroch Learg Hotel, where every stay feels like returning home.
