The menu of 210 Bistro from Aberdeen includes 123 menus. On average the menus or drinks on the menu cost approximately £9. You can view the categories on the menu below. The restaurant offers a casual bar/bistro setting on the ground floor and a more upscale experience upstairs. Customers rave about the fantastic food with great flavor combinations and a twist on traditional meals. However, some have criticized the poor service, citing slow drink delivery, lack of attention from staff, and disappointment with main courses. Despite these issues, the cocktails are excellent and the food is great, with attentive and eager-to-please staff. Furthermore, the restaurant has received praise for accommodating difficult dietary requirements and offering top-quality, delicious food with lovely views over the harbor. Overall, it is seen as one of the top fine dining restaurants in Aberdeen, providing great value for money and a quiet, welcoming atmosphere. It has also hosted successful events such as a Supper Club with delicious menu options and first-class service. While there are some areas for improvement, many customers are looking forward to their next visit and would recommend the restaurant to others.
