The restaurant from Mendip District offers 137 different dishes and drinks on the menu for an average price of £7. A group of friends and families enjoyed a Sunday lunch at The Duke, sitting in the bar area instead of the restaurant as originally intended. While the food was excellent, unexpected additional costs left a negative impression on one diner. Another praised the spacious atmosphere, good food, and attentive service, despite some issues with the taste of the meat. One reviewer appreciated the lovely setting and great service, though they would have preferred no music in the dining area. Another diner found the food nice and the service perfect, though they felt a little cold due to the open dining area. Despite some hiccups with service and food availability on a previous visit, the friendly staff and good value for money keep customers coming back for Sunday roasts. Overall, The Duke is a beautiful and relaxing place to enjoy a meal, with pleasant service, good value, and a menu that leaves guests satisfied.
