The restaurant from Coeur offers 139 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $15.1.

Located in the heart of Coeur D'Alene, The Mango Tree offers a mixed bag of experiences for Indian food enthusiasts. Diners rave about the flavorful dishes, such as coconut curry and korma, with generous portions and accommodating spice levels. However, some patrons report issues with cleanliness, notably flies hovering around the dining area and unsightly mystery strands found in dishes. Service is generally praised, with staff providing helpful recommendations and friendly service. While the restaurant has potential, consistency in food quality and ambiance remains a concern, leaving some customers uncertain about a return visit.
