The Three Crowns, located at the corner of Stoke Newington High Street and Church Street, offers a welcoming atmosphere with a good selection of seating options. The pub features a large bar that ensures fast and friendly service. The roast is highly recommended, with enormous portions that leave everyone satisfied. However, some recent changes, such as a new meat supplier, have disappointed customers. The new management has made improvements in service, although the menu could use more variety. Despite some shortcomings, the Three Crowns provides a cozy setting and excellent staff, making it a great spot for a casual weekend visit.
