The place from Bournemouth offers 178 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of £7. KFC has long been a fast-food staple, but recent visits reveal a significant decline in quality and service. Diners have reported excessively long wait times, unclear ordering processes, and disappointing food, including dry chicken and soggy fries. Complaints regarding a lack of customer service training and inadequate food checks have surfaced, tarnishing the brand's reputation. While some patrons have expressed gratitude for takeaway services during tough times, the overall sentiment is that KFC is no longer delivering the quality and taste that once made it a favorite. It's clear that improvements are needed to regain customer trust.
