The menu of Nando's from ST. ANDREWS contains about 226 different menus and drinks. On average you pay about £6 for a dish / drink. Nando's in St Andrews has received mixed reviews recently, with some diners expressing disappointment in both the food quality and service. One family experienced issues with the starters being cold and the main meals not meeting expectations, while another group faced a long wait for food that ultimately arrived cold. However, other visitors have praised the friendly and helpful staff, as well as the delicious and juicy chicken. The restaurant is wheelchair accessible, with a disabled toilet available. Despite some negative experiences, there have been positive comments about the proactive approach to accommodating food allergies and the spacious and well-decorated atmosphere. Overall, opinions on Nando's in St Andrews vary from disappointing to satisfactory, with room for improvement in consistency across service and food quality.
