While some patrons rave about their flavorful chicken rookies and well-cooked dishes like piri piri chicken and rice, others express disappointment, particularly with certain shawarma offerings. Prices are generally fair, and many meals are substantial. Service, however, can be hit or miss, with reports of unprofessional staff. Despite its flaws, the restaurant remains a solid choice for casual dining, especially for those seeking a quick bite after a night out. Overall, it's worth a visit to explore its offerings.
