Cinnamon Café offers a convenient escape in Liverpool's bustling business district, known for its clean environment and friendly staff. Customers find the prices surprisingly affordable, with a variety of tasty options, including sandwiches and pastries. While some enjoy prompt service during busy hours, others report frustrating delays as phone orders often take precedence over in-person customers, leading to long queues. Inconsistencies in food quality—such as cold beans and greasy breakfasts—have been noted. However, patrons appreciate the complimentary items provided during service lapses, reflecting the café's commitment to customer satisfaction. Overall, with a bit of improvement, Cinnamon could easily elevate its standing in the local dining scene.
