Nestled on a hill overlooking Uig Bay, just five minutes away from the Ferry Port, our hotel is perfectly situated for exploring the stunning landscapes of North Skye and venturing out to the Outer Hebrides and the Highlands beyond. Our charming establishment, an old coaching inn dating back to 1831, offers a range of accommodations suitable for every traveller, from cosy singles to spacious family suites. Both our hotel and Lodge are pet-friendly, welcoming your four-legged companions in designated areas. At our restaurant, you can indulge in delicious home-cooked meals crafted by our talented chef using fresh local ingredients. Our menu features locally sourced delights, including Highland red deer and home-smoked sea trout, ensuring that you truly taste the essence of Skye. Enjoy your meal with a view of the bay, and don't forget to sample our selection of local ales, Isle of Skye gin, or a fine Talisker single malt in our inviting bar area. Beyond our doors, the natural beauty and rich wildlife of the Isle of Skye await. Spot golden eagles and sea eagles soaring overhead, or keep an eye out for otters, seals, and dolphins that frequent the bay. The enchanting Fairy Glen, majestic Quiraing, iconic Kilt Rock, and the mythical Old Man of Storr are just a short drive away, making your stay with us an unforgettable adventure. For those seeking a more private experience, our self-catering cottage, Ascribs View, offers the charm of a traditional Highland croft. Overlooking Uig Bay and the Ascrib Islands, it's a perfect spot for enjoying the local wildlife and the passing boats. Led by the friendly duo of Billy and Anne Harley and their dedicated team (including our beloved Springer Spaniel, Rosie), the Uig Hotel promises to make your stay comfortable and memorable. Whether you're here to unwind or to explore, we are excited to welcome you to the heart of Skye.
