JÖRO [Yoro] – meaning 'Earth' – invites you to embark on a culinary journey like no other. Our flagship restaurant with rooms has found its new home at the historic Oughtibridge Mill, reimagined to reflect our passion for flavour and hospitality. Since opening on December 4th, 2024, we have dedicated ourselves to crafting an unforgettable dining experience. At JÖRO, we pride ourselves on offering a distinct style of food, drinks, atmosphere, and service. Our informal open-plan dining room features just 11 tables, creating an intimate setting where you can soak in the lively buzz of our kitchen. Here, every meal becomes an experience – a celebration of our complete devotion to the art of food. Emphasizing comfort and inclusivity, JÖRO has no dress code, welcoming guests of all ages to enjoy our exquisite tasting menus. Situated within the beautifully restored 19th Century Oughtibridge Mill, Luke and Stacey Sherwood French have breathed new life into this once-derelict paper mill, now enhanced with seven charming rooms. Join us at JÖRO for a truly immersive taste of what we cherish most: food prepared with love, shared in good company, and enjoyed in a vibrant, welcoming atmosphere.
