Chestnut Café is a beloved gem known for its friendly staff and cozy atmosphere. While many patrons enjoy quality breakfasts and delightful afternoon teas, recent visits revealed inconsistencies in food quality and service. Shrinking portion sizes and undercooked sausages have raised concerns among regulars. Despite these shortcomings, some diners praise the café's variety of delicious cakes and impressive coffee. Though service can be slow and inattentive during busy periods, the warm environment and excellent offerings keep many returning. With a bit of attention to quality and consistency, Chestnut Café has the potential to shine even brighter.
