Oscars restaurant presents a mixed bag of experiences for diners. While some guests rave about the warm atmosphere and friendly service, others report significant disappointments, highlighting a startling inconsistency in food quality and service efficiency. Complaints about frozen calamari and incorrect orders surfaced, alongside accusations of rude staff interactions. Despite a cozy decor and a promising menu, several patrons felt their dining experience was marred by inadequate service and subpar dishes. Although a few customer encounters were satisfactory, the overarching sentiment suggests that Oscars needs to address their operational shortcomings to regain a loyal clientele.
