Once a beloved gem in the realm of Chinese takeout, Fairview has recently sparked mixed sentiments among its patrons. Longtime customers lament a decline in quality, citing bland dishes and less-than-satisfactory flavors. In stark contrast, newer visitors celebrate a resurgence, praising generous portions and delightful flavors, particularly the Szechuan offerings and prawn toast. Improvements in presentation and a refreshed menu have garnered positive feedback, positioning Fairview as a strong contender in the local dining scene once more. While some wary diners remain skeptical, the restaurant seems to be on a path of revitalization, beckoning both loyal fans and newcomers alike.
