Caffe Cream in New Brighton has long been a beloved spot for its ice cream and cozy atmosphere, but recent visits have revealed a decline in service quality and product availability. While the café offers a variety of delicious flavors, many popular options have been repeatedly sold out. Some patrons have expressed disappointment with unclean tables and inattentive staff. However, the café still shines with its inviting ambiance, excellent mochas, and unique vegan options, alongside accommodating and friendly staff. As the seaside destination continues to draw locals and visitors alike, consistent attention to service and cleanliness is essential for maintaining its charming reputation.
