A comprehensive menu of The Duke William from Bassetlaw covering all 15 courses and drinks can be found here on the card. Nestled in a charming village, this Georgian pub-restaurant offers an appealing ambiance but is marred by inconsistent service. While many guests rave about the exceptional food—highlighting dishes like sea bream, smoked haddock risotto, and homemade meat pies—others report unwelcoming interactions from staff that undermine the experience. The menu is praised for its variety, though some find prices steep. Despite these discrepancies, the cozy atmosphere and dog-friendly policy attract families and friends alike. Ultimately, the venue seems to oscillate between gastro pub aspirations and traditional dining, leaving some diners uncertain about a return visit.
