Millard's Fish and Chips has garnered mixed reviews, reflecting a varied dining experience. While some patrons express disappointment in the taste of the fish and mushy peas, citing a decline in quality possibly linked to the cost of living crisis, others praise the restaurant for its friendly service and delicious offerings. Dine-in and takeout customers appreciate the cleanliness, generous portions, and the variety of menu options, including chicken and pizzas. The atmosphere is generally rated well, with many recommending the restaurant as a reliable spot for satisfying meals, especially the large fish and chips, despite some concerns about wait times.
