On this webpage, you can find the complete menu of Lahore from Birmingham. Currently, there are 18 courses and drinks available. Diners at this restaurant on Ladypool Road have reported a wide range of experiences, showcasing a stark contrast in service and food quality. While some rave about the delectable masala fish and well-cooked mix grills, others lament the lackluster service, with long waits and unresponsive staff marring their visits. Complaints include bland food, incorrect orders, and rude interactions, leading many to advise potential patrons to think twice before dining here. Despite the positive notes on certain dishes, the prevailing consensus suggests that significant improvements are needed in both service and culinary execution to turn around the dining experience.
