A comprehensive menu of China China from Brighton and Hove covering all 15 menus and drinks can be found here on the card. Once a beloved Brighton institution, the restaurant's recent transformation has left many patrons disappointed. Prices have soared, with some dishes seeing increases of over 50% and less menu flexibility than before, losing much of its former charm. While there are still moments of delight, including commendable Malaysian dishes and friendly staff, the overall quality has faltered, with reports of dry meats and inadequate portions. Despite the mixed reviews, the welcoming atmosphere and a few standout items hint at a potential resurgence, making it a place worth revisiting—but only with tempered expectations.
