On this site, you can find the complete menu of Host from Bradford. Currently, there are 16 courses and drinks available. Recently rebranded as Joel's, this restaurant in Ilkley sparks mixed feelings among diners. While some praise its atmospheric design and innovative Asian street food, others express disappointment over slow service and uninspired dishes that fail to justify higher prices. Notably, the fried chicken and curry dishes received criticism for blandness, while the succulent Japanese rice and pickled onions garnered a few positive nods. On the contrary, regulars celebrate their consistently superb Sunday roasts and attentive staff. As Joel's strives for popularity, the potential remains, but significant improvements are essential to enhance dining experiences across the board.
