Here you can find the menu of Heron Tower in City of London, Westminster. At the moment, there are 20 courses and drinks on the card. Nestled in Heron Tower, Sushi Samba offers breathtaking views of London, complemented by a creative drinks menu and delightful bar snacks. However, the overall experience suffers from inconsistent service, as patrons report long waits for attention and poor table management between courses.

While cocktails are acknowledged for their quality and unique flavors, the hefty price tags, alongside an automatic service charge, have left many feeling shortchanged. Despite its stunning ambiance, including fire pits and artistic decor, guests express reluctance to return, recommending it primarily for special occasions rather than a casual outing.
