In a bustling food scene, one restaurant stands out with mixed reviews. While some customers praised the speedy delivery and fantastic garlic and chili naan, others faced delays and lukewarm dishes. Highlights include delicious starters and generous portion sizes, making it a decent value for takeout. However, consistency in cooking quality, particularly with overcooked chicken, remains a concern. Overall, this establishment excels in fast service and flavorful offerings, notably the Saag Paneer and tandoori mixed grill, but could benefit from improved reliability to ensure a satisfying experience for all patrons.
