The Tea Hut Cafe is a popular spot for grabbing drinks, cake, and food. While some reviewers were disappointed with the breakfast sandwiches and slow service, others enjoyed the atmosphere and lovely location by the river. The carrot cake and gluten-free toastie were highlights for many. The staff was praised for their helpfulness, going above and beyond for customers. The Tea Hut Cafe seems to be a hit or miss, with some great dishes like the sausage roll and brunch sandwich, but also some disappointing experiences with soggy chips and limited food options. Overall, it's a charming spot for a coffee and a treat.
