On this site, you can find the complete menu of No. 31 Tapas Kitchen from Milton Keynes. Currently, there are 16 dishes and drinks up for grabs. A recent exploration of a local restaurant reveals a mixed bag of culinary experiences amid some positive signs for the future. Diners praised generous portions of quality dishes, particularly the Sunday lunch featuring delicious pork and lamb, alongside enticing desserts. Brunch offerings, like the dirty burger, received high marks for flavor and presentation, while well-prepared tapas delighted lunchtime guests. However, some noted irregularities, such as service delays and dish unavailability, leading to a sense of inconsistency. Despite teething issues attributed to new ownership, many hope for a return to form, ultimately making it a place to watch for continued improvement.
