Here you can find the menu of Station Rd Fish in North Lincolnshire. At the moment, there are 16 courses and drinks on the menu. Hibaldstow Chippy presents a mixed experience for diners. While many patrons praise the friendly staff and cleanliness, concerns about food quality and value for money often surface. Recent visits have revealed inconsistent portion sizes and overcooked fish, while others appreciate the generous servings and great taste. Prices vary, with some finding them steep for the offerings. However, the establishment's quick service and delivery options have garnered positive attention, especially during challenging times. Despite some detractors, a commitment to improvement and quality shines through, making it a spot worth trying for those seeking classic fish and chips.
