Nestled by the sea, this restaurant offers a mix of experiences, from welcoming service to mixed food quality. While some guests enjoyed delicious meals and attentive staff, others faced disappointing choices and poorly executed dishes. The atmosphere varies, with some feeling cold and uninviting, while others appreciated the stunning views and lovely settings. Highlights include pleasant breakfast and afternoon tea options, though a few meals were criticized for being below par. The service, especially from the Italian waitstaff, often shines through. While the restaurant has its charms, consistency remains a concern for many diners.
