Kowloon House has emerged as a point of contention, with recent management changes bringing about mixed reviews. While a growing number of patrons praise the new owners for delivering fresh, flavorful dishes and improved service, others recount frustrations with excessively long wait times, incorrect orders, and subpar food quality. Complaints of unresponsive customer service and refund issues have surfaced, tarnishing the dining experience for some. Yet, the positive feedback about the revival of the menu and attentive staff suggests a promising turnaround. As tastes of new ownership clash with past disappointments, patrons are cautiously optimistic.
