At The Duke of York Brewers Fayre in Dover, diners frequently rave about the delicious food and exceptional service. Guests have enjoyed a variety of dishes, from hearty mixed grills to comforting fish pie, often leaving satisfied and full. However, some have noted recent declines in portion size and quality, alongside concerns over cleanliness, particularly in the restrooms. Despite this, the friendly and attentive staff, including standout servers like Rick and Angie, contribute to a welcoming atmosphere. With its excellent value and inviting vibe, The Duke of York remains a popular choice for families and casual diners alike.
