Welcome Friends, a family-run traditional Chinese restaurant, continues to draw diners with its friendly service and a menu that honors classic Anglo-Chinese dishes. Though some patrons noted inconsistent food quality, most rave about the exceptional value and freshness, particularly praising dishes like pork gyoza and crispy duck. Its nostalgic charm contrasts with the need for a bit of decor refurbishment, but the warm atmosphere and polite staff ensure a pleasant dining experience. Despite mixed reviews on certain menu items, many locals remain loyal, appreciating the unpretentious setting and reasonable prices in a post-pandemic landscape.
