enough funds.

They have been providing food meals to me since the start of the first lockdown donating £100 meals in total for free.

I have delivered these meals to families in their community, residents in care homes, families in refuge & homeless accommodation & staff working on the new care centre at Alford.

Last night the meals were provided to our local community centre accommodation giving every parent, child & staff member a hot meal, elderly people in the community & staff on the care centre will be happy to receive these meals for lunch today.

Desii opens its doors again on May 1st, if you are thinking of going out for a meal please show Desii your support as they fully deserve it! ❤️
