Chung's Restaurant, a family-owned gem in Carlisle, serves delicious and clean food despite a somewhat outdated menu. While patrons rave about specialties like the house special fried rice and curry sauce, some feel the oil used for fish and chips has recently degraded in quality. Although the service can be hit or miss, especially near closing time, many loyal customers appreciate the attentive staff and gluten-free options. With a limited fish and chip selection and a plea for more variety, Chung's remains a beloved staple offering tasty dishes that keep diners returning for more.
