Stamford Chinese presents an intriguing dichotomy for diners, with reviews reflecting a mix of delight and discontent. While some patrons rave about flavorful dishes like King Prawns in chili and garlic and the aromatic crispy duck, others express frustration over mistakes in orders and rude service. Takeaway experiences vary widely, with some enjoying prompt service and generous portions, while others faced chaotic waits and unappetizing meals. Despite its potential, consistent delivery and customer service seem to be areas needing improvement. For many locals, the allure of convenience may not outweigh recent disappointments.
