A complete menu of The Cross Keys from Stirling covering all 18 meals and drinks can be found here on the card. Nestled in the charming village of Kippen, The Cross Keys offers a mixed experience for visitors. Guests appreciate the warm and welcoming service, especially from the beloved resident dog, Jessie. The atmosphere is cozy, perfect for a relaxed meal or stay. While many have enjoyed the creatively changing menu with standout dishes like braised ox cheek and duck breast, others found certain offerings underwhelming. Accommodations provide a comfortable night's sleep, though some rooms may benefit from updates. Despite some inconsistencies in dining quality, the service and location are consistently praised, making it a recommended stop in Scotland.
