Nestled in Wisbech, this café has garnered mixed reviews from patrons. While many delight in the delicious, freshly prepared food, offering everything from light bites to hearty meals at great value, others lament the service quality. There are reports of rude and inattentive waitstaff, with cleanliness concerns, particularly with high chairs. Several visitors note the bustling atmosphere as a positive, indicating local popularity, yet this does not overshadow the need for better hygiene and customer service. Overall, while the culinary offerings shine, the erratic service detracts from an otherwise enjoyable experience.
