Dining at this local establishment proves to be a polarizing affair, with reviews ranging from disdain to delight. While some patrons lament the outdated ambiance, unwelcoming service, and unsatisfactory food quality—citing dishes that are soggy or reminiscent of a bygone era—others celebrate the culinary delights found in the bakery's offerings. Diners rave about the exceptional pies, notably the macaroni and steak varieties, which feature flaky crusts and rich fillings. Despite the discrepancies in service and food experiences, there remains a consistent appreciation for friendly staff and value for money, making it a place of contrasts worth considering.
