Once celebrated for its quality, this fish and chip shop is facing a disappointing decline in standards. Many patrons have reported soggy, greasy chips and underwhelming fish portions, with concerns about food freshness emerging frequently. In stark contrast, there are still customers who appreciate the value and taste of other menu items, like fiscakes and sausages. Despite occasional positive experiences, the shop's inconsistency and worsening quality have driven loyal customers away. While it remains a local favorite for some, many now seek alternatives in the quest for truly satisfying fish and chips.
