Here you can find the menu of Marecrudo in Milán. At the moment, there are 23 courses and drinks on the card. Marecrudo is one of the most famous seafood restaurants in Porta Romana, Milan. The elegant and understated style of this restaurant manages to win over the hearts of Milanese locals and tourists alike. Among the dishes that we enjoyed the most were the crudités, as well as the velvety pumpkin and shrimp soup. The seafood fritters are well-executed, showcasing Marecrudo's commitment to quality and freshness of the catch. For pasta lovers, there is a variety of options such as spaghetti, linguine, paccheri, gnocchetti, scialatielli, tagliolini, all paired with the delicate yet flavorful taste of seafood like clams, bottarga, seafood ragù, seafood, and tomato monkfish. Try it and let us know what you think!.
