On this site, you can find the complete menu of The Bandstand from Isle of Wight. Currently, there are 19 meals and drinks up for grabs. The restaurant in Sandown, with a beautiful view, offers delicious food with a few dishes slightly underwhelming. The service can be hit or miss depending on how busy they are. Highlights include lamb with dauphinoise potatoes, excellent sandwiches, and fantastic fish & chips. The festive menu is creative and worth trying. Some favorite dishes have unfortunately been removed from the menu, but suitable replacements are available. Despite minor service issues, the overall experience is enjoyable, with accommodating staff. Dining here is highly recommended, highlighted by beautiful sea views from the slightly elevated location.
