On this webpage, you can find the complete menu of The Garden Cafe from Cambridge. Currently, there are 20 dishes and drinks available. The Garden Cafe, situated within the Botanical Gardens, is a mixed bag. While it offers pleasant outdoor seating and a few unique treats like lavender ice cream, many visitors find the pricing steep for what they receive. Common complaints include poorly executed dishes, long queues, and a lack of timely service—resulting in customers often feeling dissatisfied. However, those seeking light snacks like cakes and sandwiches may find it adequate, especially when guided by friendly staff. Overall, while the cafe boasts a charming location, patrons might be better off bringing their own meals for a more enjoyable experience amidst the gardens.
