Nestled in Groby, this restaurant has become a topic of mixed reviews following a recent management change. While some guests have expressed disappointment over portion sizes and inconsistent food quality, praising dishes like the aromatic crispy duck and chicken and cashew, others celebrate a resurgence in flavor and service. Diners are enjoying a variety of well-executed offerings, including chicken achari and dahl makhani, alongside quick, friendly service. Though some lament the lack of delivery options and payment issues, a noticeable improvement in overall dining experience suggests a potential turnaround for this establishment.
