Nestled in Cheltenham, the Royal Union pub offers a cozy atmosphere, friendly bartenders, and an intriguing selection of ales and homemade meals. Patrons have enjoyed the unique charm, with dogs adding to the welcoming vibe. However, experiences vary widely; while some rave about the hospitality and delicious food, others lament rude service and questionable drink quality. Many guests appreciate the quirky lounge and entertainment, but issues with the landlord and drink choices have led to frustrated ratings. Despite the hiccups, its rustic appeal keeps some returning, making it a notable spot in the local pub scene.
