At this local Turkish restaurant, patrons are met with mixed experiences that highlight both the potential for great flavors and significant service shortcomings. While many rave about the delicious chicken shawarma and lamb kebabs, complemented by fresh ingredients and generous portions, others express disappointment with frequent order mistakes and unresponsive customer service. High prices for inconsistent quality have also raised eyebrows. Despite these issues, loyal customers appreciate the welcoming staff and the inviting ambiance, making it a neighborhood gem for quick takeout. For kebab enthusiasts, this spot remains a tempting option, provided improvements are made to service and reliability.
