Nestled by the marina, this café offers a promising atmosphere with outdoor seating complemented by a delightful menu. Diners rave about the quality of food and the picturesque setting; however, experiences are marred by inconsistent service. While some patrons praise the staff's friendliness and attentiveness, others note a lack of warmth, even describing encounters as unfriendly. Additionally, some amenities, like outdoor heaters, fell short during colder visits. Prices are generally average, leading to mixed feedback on value. Despite these issues, many agree it's a must-visit destination for a casual meal or a relaxing coffee in a beautiful location.
