Our recently refurbished inn offers 3 ensuite rooms and serves a variety of local beers and ciders. Meet Mark, Eve, Brooke, and the rest of the team who are eager to welcome you to this quintessential country inn in the heart of the picturesque village of Eardisland in North Herefordshire. As an independent family-run establishment, we take pride in offering a warm and friendly atmosphere. You can always find 3 cask beers on tap from local breweries such as Wye Valley, Hobsons, Three Tuns, and Ludlow. Our wine selection is carefully handpicked and not available on the high street. In our kitchen, Eve leads the team with a true passion for food. We cook over charcoal in a Bertha oven, ensuring each dish is full of flavor and tenderness. Our menu features a variety of options, including a selection of steaks and traditional pub fare. All of our beef comes from Heggies butchers in Hereford and is sourced from pedigree Hereford cattle, which are bred and raised locally in Herefordshire, allowing us to trace it from field to fork.
