The Golden Haddock in Withernsea offers a blend of experiences for patrons seeking traditional fish and chips. While some diners rave about the freshly cooked, flaky haddock and pleasant staff, others report inconsistencies, with issues like greasy fish and thick batter. The service shines when the owner is present, elevating the atmosphere and food quality. However, during busy times, the experience may falter. Despite minor complaints about mushy peas and portion sizes, many guests commend the cleanliness, reasonable prices, and the overall charm of this beloved local chippy, making it a noteworthy stop in town.
