Nestled in the heart of Glasgow, this bustling tavern offers a lively atmosphere perfect for sports enthusiasts. While the drinks are reasonably priced and the service is often exceptional, the food experiences vary. Patrons have enjoyed standout dishes like chicken wings and burgers, but there are complaints about soggy buns and greasy chips. The decor is inviting but can get quite loud, making it unsuitable for quiet dining. Despite some inconsistencies in food quality and service speed, the establishment remains a popular choice for those looking to unwind with great beers and live sports. Reservations are recommended.
